

Exploring Opportunities for Junior Miners

Is your enterprise at least 51% black-owned and in need of capital to kick-start mining exploration activity?

The Junior Mining Exploration Fund (JMEF) is a joint fund of the Industrial Development Corporation (IDC) and the Department of Mineral Resources and Energy (DMRE) to enable mining enterprises to unlock their potential and break into mainstream mining activity.

Who can apply? Junior miners with valid prospecting right, including start-ups and expanding.

There will be future funding calls, so look out for these opportunities. Visit idc.co.za/junior-mining for more information.

Terms and conditions apply.

An Exciting New Prospect

Is your enterprise at least 51% black-owned and in need of capital to kick-start mining exploration activity?

The Junior Mining Exploration Fund (JMEF) is a joint fund of the Industrial Development Corporation (IDC) and the Department of Mineral Resources and Energy (DMRE) to enable mining enterprises to unlock their potential and break into mainstream mining activity.

Who can apply? Junior miners with valid prospecting right, including start-ups and expanding.

There will be future funding calls, so look out for these opportunities. Visit idc.co.za/junior-mining for more information.
Terms and conditions apply.