MEDIA ADVISORY

WOMEN IN NUCLEAR CONFERENCE

Women in Nuclear South Africa (WiNSA) in collaboration with the Department of Energy, Nuclear Industry Association of South Africa (NIASA), and South African Young Nuclear Professionals Society (SAYNPS) will be hosting the Women in Nuclear Conference themed “Acknowledgment of Women’s Contribution in the Nuclear Industry,” whilst celebrating Mme Albertina Nontsikelelo Sisulu’s Centenary.”

The objective of this event is to boost WiNSA’s contribution in empowering women in the nuclear sector as well as playing a pivotal role in educating the public including South African women and the youth. In addition WiNSA advocates for the transformation of South Africa’s nuclear industry supply chain, and promotes women and youth skills development, as well as the preservation of Nuclear Knowledge and Expertise, while emphasising the importance and benefits of Nuclear Science and Technology Applications.

The conference will be honoured with the presence of the Deputy Minister of Energy, Ambassador Thembisile Majola who will deliver the keynote address that should inspire the women in nuclear to double their efforts in working towards their own and others’ empowerment.

Members of the media are invited as follows:
