DEPUTY MINISTER NKABANE TO ADDRESS THE WOMEN IN MINING CONFERENCE

The Deputy Minister of Mineral Resources and Energy (DMRE) Dr Nobuhle Nkabane will deliver a keynote address at the 13th Women in Mining Conference set to take place Wednesday 23 February 2022, in Fourways, Johannesburg.

Convened under the theme “Investing on Small Business Development for Women in Mining,” the conference seeks to create a platform for women in the mining and minerals sector to share information and engage on opportunities in the sector’s value chain and how to access them.

The conference brings together stakeholders from the government, mining companies, funding institutions, women organizations and others. Deliberations will cover a wide range of pertinent issues, including opportunities in the mining sector, transformation, support programmes for women in small scale mining, business opportunities in mining and success stories of women already in the sector.

Members of the media are invited to attend and cover the conference as per the details below:

Date: Wednesday, 23 February 2022
