MINISTER MANTASHE TO ENGAGE WITH FISHING COMMUNITIES

The Minister of Mineral Resources and Energy, Mr Gwede Mantashe (MP) will engage with representatives of fishing communities on matters relating to upstream petroleum industry at the Cape Town International Convention Centre, on Friday 26 August 2022.

The session forms part of the Ministerial engagements with various stakeholders aimed at providing clarity and crafting solutions to the challenges experienced in the development of the Upstream Petroleum Industry. The engagement will be preceded by a pre-colloquium session hosted by the Petroleum Agency of South Africa (PASA) on the coexistence of the upstream petroleum and fishing industries in South Africa.

Members of the media are invited to attend and cover both the Ministerial engagement and the pre-colloquium session scheduled as follows:

Pre-Colloquium session:
